accovering From the Shot He Received in Court, but Still Weak-Says Abe Ruef Will Be Tried Again if His Fourteen Year Sentence Is Not Sustained. WASHINGTON, Dec. 23. - Francis J. Heney, special assistant attorney for the eral Government and the President knew nothing of his coming until after he had peceived a letter written by Heney informing him of the contemplated visit.

"I am here with my wife on the advice of my physician to permit her to recover from the shock of the shooting affray through which I passed and to enable me to recuperate," said Mr. Heney. "I The right side of his face near the ear men in Pittsburg competent to take care of that situation. But there you have the same old story, a striving for a public utility franchise that is always at the bottom of it all. I understand that Pat Calhoun, whose trial is to come up in San Francisco next month, is also mixed up with the street railway situation in St. Louis and in Pittsburg."

"Don't you believe that the 'system' is responsible for such alleged offences as Calhoun's?"

"No. Such men as Calhoun are responsible for the system," "splied Mr.
Heney. "As long as we have private franchises for public utilities we will have more or less of this thing."

"Will Abe Ruef be tried again?"

"That depends on how the Supreme Court and the Appellate Court treat the verdict," replied the prosecutor. "He court and the Appellate Court treat the verdict," replied the prosecutor. "He is liable to a sentence of fourteen years on the last conviction. If that is sustained we may not try him again."

Mr. Heney said that he had been compelled to give up engagements to make addresses on the advice of his physician.

CONVICTED OF PATENT FRAUDS. Philadelphia Lawyer Subject to a Maximum Sentence of Seventy Years. WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 .- Henry E. Everding, a Philadelphia lawyer, was convicted by a jury in the Criminal Court here to-day of patent frauds, and John A. Heany, a York, Pa., inventor, who was Political Committees Presecuted Be-indicted with Everding, was acquitted. cause They Did Not Conform to the Law. Everding can receive a maximum of seventy years on the counts of the indictments on which he was found guilty.

Everding, Heany and Ned W. Barton, a former assistant examiner in the Patent Office, were jointly charged with conernment records. The indictment charged that the men conspired to secure for Heany valuable patent rights in connection with tungsten filaments used in connection with electric lights.

When the men were arraigned for trial

when the men were arraigned for trial about three weeks ago Barton pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary. The Government's testimony was to the effect that Barton, working chiefly through Everding, appropriated the ideas of other inventors, whose applications were filed. ventors whose applications were filed after Heany's and inserted these ideas in Heany's application, certain specification sheets being then destroyed and other records changed.

Col. Goethals Says the Death List Numbers 21-Forty-nine Others Injured. WASHINGTON, Dec. 23. - Lieut.-Col. George W. Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the Isthmian Canal Commission, t ansmitted to the War Department to-day a detailed report of the recent explosion of dynamite at Bas Obispo in which twelve men were killed outright and nine died from injuries, making the total death list twenty-one. Forty-nine other workmen were injured. The report adds:

"The accident is a fearful one because of the number of casualties, but occurring as it did shortly after the cessation of work at 11 o'clock, it is fortunate that a greater number were not killed and wounded, as the labor train had only just passed through the cut."

HARGISTRIAL MAY END TO-DAY. THE REAL ESTATE MARKET Then Young Hargis, Who Killed His

Father, Will Know His Fate. IRVINE, Ky., Dec. 23 .- The trial of Beach Hargis for the murder of his father will likely be completed by to-morrow night, and the young patricide will most likely know his fate by Christmas morning. The evidence in the case was completed this morning, the jury was instructed this afternoon, and one speech for the prosecution made. Three other speeches, two for the defence and one for prosecution of grafters in San Francisco, called at the White House to-day. Mr. Heney arrived in Washington last night accompanied by Mrs. Heney and will remain until after the holidays. At the entrance to the White House Mr. Heney met Senator Knox coming out.

Mr. Heney said to-day that he had not been summoned to Washington by the President or any other officer of the Federal Government and the President knew is specified. There outer the prosecution made. Three outer speeches, two for the defence e and one for the prosecution, will be made to-morrow, when the jury will have the fate of young Hargis in its hands.

This morning Mrs. L. Hargis, the widowed mother, was recalled and questioned by the prosecution. She admitted that she had done nothing toward beautifying the grave of her husband, but she was spending a large sum of money defending his slayer, their son. She said he had been buried in a coffin that had cost $1,500, and next spring she had planned to erect near the grave a suitable storie in to erect near the grave a suitable storie in keeping with the cost of the burial. She admitted that the costly casket was of his selection and that he paid for it. Mrs. Hargis made a good witness for her son, substantiating his claims of inhuman treatment on the part of his father. She admitted, however, that Judge Hargis never mistreated either her or their daughter, even when he was drunk.
